

Fact or Opinion

Look at each picture. Review the observation notes.

1. Use boxes to identify words that describe facts (what was seen/heard).
Cross out words that describe opinions (feelings, impressions, interpretations).

Fact or Opinion?	Observation Notes
	Sosha smiled and used a fisted grip to hold the blue crayon in her left hand. Joshua held the paper in place with two hands for her. They spent 20 minutes at the art table. They were happy spending time together.

Fact or Opinion?	Observation Notes
	Mia selected two plastic carrots from the toy vegetables. She counted out loud as she carefully pushed each carrot into the play dough with her left hand saying, "one, two". She smiled and looked up. She was pleased with her "vegetable pie".

Fact or Opinion?	Observation Notes
	Haden is making progress learning English since joining our program. Today, he put 26 upper case letters of the alphabet in order. He named each letter correctly as he put them in a row. When he finished, he clapped his hands and said, "I did it". He was proud of his accomplishment.

Fact or Opinion?	Observation Notes
	Tamika hates loud noises. Whenever, Ms. Reynolds rings the bell to transition between activities, she covers her ears.