

Instructional Materials

This program ensures materials, resources and technology are developmentally appropriate by:

When instructional materials, resources and technology are in use, they are made accessible to the children by:

Multiple modes or ways of learning are encouraged through the materials, resources and technology by:

Program Name:

Materials, resources and technology are chosen to consider the children's:

Preferences and interests (give examples):

Primary language (give examples):

Cultural background (give examples):

Abilities (give examples):

Program Name:

instructional materials, resources and technology chosen to support instructional outcomes by:

The instructional materials, resources and technology chosen engage students in meaningful learning by:

Children participate in the selection and adaptation of instructional materials, resources and technology by:

Program Name: