

Transitions Plan Statement

This school has the following processes in place to assist children and families with transitions:

Transitions between home and school, including children with disabilities and children with special health care needs:

Program Name:

Transitions between child care and school, including children with disabilities and children with special health care needs:

Transitions between age groups within the school

Program Name:

Transitions from school to school, including children with disabilities and children with special health care needs:

Sharing assessment and developmental progress with others involved in the transitions:

Program Name: